

School Council at Woolston Infant School

School Council meetings take place once a week followed by a class meeting in each year group.

The purpose of our School Council is for children to share their views and opinions as well as to contribute to the whole school development.

Each week and term we have a focus which we talk about in meetings and discuss and share with our class. The school councillors talk with their class and collect any ideas and feedback.