Headteacher's Message

Having been in classrooms lots this week, I have been amazed with the learning that has been happening.

Willow and Cedar classes have amazed me the most, learning to retell the story, "The Little Red Hen." The confidence in which they can retell the story, accompanied with actions has been lovely to watch.

It has also shown me how hard our staff work to ensure all the children in our school make progress. Sometimes, this is forgotten so I would like to say a big thank you to them.

Safety is our main priority at Woolston, of pupils, staff and visitors. For this reason, dogs are not allowed on the site and please ensure bikes and scooters are not ridden on the playground. Kindness is one of our school values. Therefore, I do expect everyone to show this when talking to staff, children or other parents while on the school site.
