Headteacher's Message

Today is transition day. All the children are getting to know their new class teachers with lots of exciting activities.

Tomorrow, parents have the option to come and meet your child's new year 1 or 2 teacher and classroom, or their current teacher from 3.15 until 5pm. We look forward to seeing you then - you do not need an appointment.

Unfortunately, due to a lack of support, the Friends of Woolston have decided to postpone the school fayre. There will be a smaller fayre on Monday 13th July from 3.15-5.15. The Friends do a wonderful job in arranging events which raise money for the school, which helps us provide more opportunities for the children. Please help support the Friends, in any way you can. Volunteers are needed to ensure these events can run smoothly and safely. You can pop along to coffee mornings or follow their Facebook account - Friends of Woolston infant School.
